3 Hour Zion Panoramic Tour (Viator, Land Beyond Zion)
You can take this trip either direction. If you are coming from Zion with clients you go up Smithsonian Butte. Can start at the ghost town and then head up. If you are starting in La Verkin from Davis Market, you can head up the Apple Valley way and start with the Petroglyph wall and end at Grafton. Keep in mind that there can be sun in your eyes, so you want to be aware of that so you are not driving into the sunset, as it can be super blinding.

GRAFTON GHOST TOWN
Grafton Ghost town. Get out and walk around. I usually just go inside the big building and little building near the Church school house. I tend to skip the others. (15 minutes)

SMITHSONIAN BUTTE STAGING AREA
Good place for parking if you are meeting a client here and they are in their car. They can leave their car safely here. https://maps.app.goo.gl/zGBN9FZt1H7PSk428

ROAD SIDE VIEWPOINT
Stop at top of what used to be crybaby hill and look at Panoramic view big pull out for a quick pic (3-4 mins) This is great if you have people who are mobility limited.

PETROGLYPH WALL
Next drive along this road and go to Gooseberry Mesa Road and just past it if you have time you will go to the petroglyph wall. Look for a game trail. There's a big round rock you will hike up on to.
Beginning Park here
End at the petroglyph walll

CHINLE WALL

Chinle wall out at the beginning of the drive. This is right off of the turn off to Gooseberry Mesa. You can drive up to the edge and look. Good viewpoint for those with mobility issues. Please ask the clients to not get too close to edge as it's crumbly. Thanks!
